

balesio's new Screen Capturing Suite: Professional screen recording and editing for every application

Reutlingen, Germany – New! Both our bestselling software TurboDemo™ and ALLCapture™ are now offered in a new software bundle, balesio Screen Capturing Suite, which supports full-motion recording as well as screenshot based screen capturing. From now on, there's no more need to choose between the most adequate way to create demos and tutorials, you can simply combine both methods to perform the most convenient authoring:

- with ALLCapture you can record screen activities in real-time, incl. audio on multiple sound tracks and create full-motion based videos, demos and tutorials. ALLCapture is the software alternative to video recorders.
- with TurboDemo you can record screen activities as screenshots, edit them on a slide basis and then export interactive demos, tutorials and SCORM compatible e-learning content in various formats.

ALLCapture - Advantages:

- Present dynamic processes
- Full-motion recording
- Record and re-recording multiple sound tracks
- Convert your PowerPoint into Flash

TurboDemo - Advantages:

- Easy post-production and project enhancement
- Import existing flash movies
- Export in 7 different output formats
- Interactivity – quizzes and SCORM

The NEW balesio Screen Capturing Suite

Combining the benefits of both tools, the balesio Screen Capturing Suite offers many new opportunities in creating and presenting multimedia content:

- Merging full-motion content into a project with interactive content. Record in real-time or use existing flash films and import into TurboDemo projects. Create and publish animated software manuals or FAQ videos.
- Record your PowerPoint presentations including animations and create videos to be published on the web, TV or trade fairs. In combination with TurboDemo, you can then add interactivity which is ideal for touch screens.
- Record full-motion content, edit the project and create banners and other professional marketing material.

The balesio Screen Capturing Suite is available for only US$ 399.00. The Enterprise Edition is available for only US$ 799.00. Multi user prices and more information are available on our product sites www.ALLCapture.com and www.TurboDemo.com.
